

GIVE AN HOUR. GIVE A SATURDAY. THINK OF WE BEFORE ME. REACH OUT A HAND TO ONE AND INFLUENCE THE CONDITION OF ALL. LIVE UNITED.TM

United Way Students in Action (UWSA)

is a student-led community change organization on college and university campuses. Through UWSA, students advance the common good, develop leadership skills, and join the growing United Way movement.

STUDENT LEADERS OF

United Way Students in Action...

- Advance the common good in the areas of education, income, and health. Make a difference on campus and in the community by advocating, educating, volunteering, and fundraising.
- Develop leadership skills through meaningful experiences and connecting with community and business leaders.
- Join other young people and community members in the United Way movement, working with local United Way advisers and gaining access to opportunities nationally.

BENEFITS TO STUDENTS

Students leaders of United Way Students in Action are part of the largest nonprofit in the country and a growing movement to create lasting community change.

- Live united and be a part of the change
- Have fun and meet other committed students on campus and nationally
- Use and develop skills and experiences for the common good
- Connect with community and business leaders
- Be a part of the United Way global movement

BENEFITS TO CAMPUS

United Way Students in Action chapters provide many benefits for host campuses, too.

- Quality experiences and learning opportunities for students
- More chances to bridge the gap between campus and community
- Greater connection to nonprofit agencies and the business community
- Increased opportunity to highlight student activities locally and nationally
- The many benefits of quality community activity on student leaders

BENEFITS OF CHARTERING

Official United Way Students in Action chapters also can tap into:

- Support for student leaders and campus and United Way advisers from United Way of America staff
- National corporate and media partnerships (as available)
- Templates and ready-to-use publicity materials
- An alumni network of like minded student activists
- e-newsletter about the latest United Way volunteer activities, internships and advocacy campaigns across the country and globe
- United Way trainings and conference calls
- Connections to like-minded young people for students moving to new communities
- Special projects such as United Way's 10,000 Hours Show and Alternative Spring Break

For more information, please contact Mike Brooks mike.brooks@uwa.unitedway.org

unitedway.org

UNITED WAY NATIONAL SPONSORS SUPPORTING STUDENTS IN ACTION

Deloitte. FedEx.   CheapTickets

GIVE AN HOUR. GIVE A SATURDAY. THINK OF WE BEFORE ME. REACH OUT A HAND TO ONE AND INFLUENCE THE CONDITION OF ALL. LIVE UNITED™

United Way Students in Action (UWSA)

is a student-led community change organization on college and university campuses. Through UWSA, students advance the common good, develop leadership skills, and join the growing United Way movement.

STUDENT LEADERS OF

United Way Students in Action...

- Advance the common good in the areas of education, income, and health. Make a difference on campus and in the community by advocating, educating, volunteering, and fundraising.
- Develop leadership skills through meaningful experiences and connecting with community and business leaders.
- Join other young people and community members in the United Way movement, working with local United Way advisers and gaining access to opportunities nationally.

BENEFITS TO STUDENTS

Students leaders of United Way Students in Action are part of the largest nonprofit in the country and a growing movement to create lasting community change.

- Live united and be a part of the change
- Have fun and meet other committed students on campus and nationally
- Use and develop skills and experiences for the common good
- Connect with community and business leaders
- Be a part of the United Way global movement

BENEFITS TO CAMPUS

United Way Students in Action chapters provide many benefits for host campuses, too.

- Quality experiences and learning opportunities for students
- More chances to bridge the gap between campus and community
- Greater connection to nonprofit agencies and the business community
- Increased opportunity to highlight student activities locally and nationally
- The many benefits of quality community activity on student leaders

BENEFITS OF CHARTERING

Official United Way Students in Action chapters also can tap into:

- Support for student leaders and campus and United Way advisers from United Way of America staff
- National corporate and media partnerships (as available)
- Templates and ready-to-use publicity materials
- An alumni network of like minded student activists
- e-newsletter about the latest United Way volunteer activities, internships and advocacy campaigns across the country and globe
- United Way trainings and conference calls
- Connections to like-minded young people for students moving to new communities
- Special projects such as United Way's 10,000 Hours Show and Alternative Spring Break

For more information, please contact Mike Brooks mike.brooks@uwa.unitedway.org

unitedway.org

UNITED WAY NATIONAL SPONSORS SUPPORTING STUDENTS IN ACTION

Deloitte. FedEx.

