UPS DELIVERS AGAIN: COMPANY IS LARGEST FINANCIAL CONTRIBUTOR TO UNITED WAY, DEMONSTRATING COMMITMENT TO LOCAL COMMUNITIES

-- UPS Company, employees and retirees pledge $59.3 million to improve lives

Alexandria, VA (December 14, 2006) – For the seventh consecutive year, UPS has set a new record for contributions to United Way. UPS, its employees, and retirees pledged $59.3 million during the 2006 campaign to United Way for continuing support of those in need.

In addition, UPS employees volunteered more than 800,000 hours of service around the world in 2006, much of it in the United States helping local communities by repairing schools, reading to children, landscaping for local organizations and assisting food banks.

“UPS and United Way share a common goal of building stronger communities and helping people,” said UPS Chairman and CEO Mike Eskew. “We are so proud of our employees who deliver more than just packages – they deliver a helping hand to their neighbors through our partnership with United Way and other charities.”

UPS and its employees’ and retirees’ commitment to create lasting, measurable change in local communities through United Way has continued to grow year after year. UPS is a leader in corporate philanthropy and an example for those across America who strive to make a difference.

“UPS continues to raise the bar each year with their extensive engagement in communities,” said United Way of America President Brian Gallagher. “UPS employees’ generosity and commitment to making a difference in local communities across the country is unsurpassed. We are pleased to partner with UPS because of their emphasis on donating both time and money to improve lives and communities.”

More than 246,000 UPS employees participated in this year's United Way campaign, contributing more than $51.3 million. The company then contributed an additional $8 million through The UPS Foundation. In the company's hometown of Atlanta, Georgia, UPS and its employees donated more than $4.45 million, the largest contribution to United Way of any Atlanta-based company.
